Lewis-Manning Hospice Care

Your Hospice, in Your Community

A Matter of Life and Death

Education to help you help others live with a life-limiting illness and to die with dignity.

Delivered by Palliative Care Professionals

"Very informative and interactive. The knowledge, and how the course was presented, was exceptional. Lots of information was given and I came away feeling that I have learnt a lot."

This programme is delivered across two modules.
You can choose to attend one, or both sessions.

Part 1: The Anticipatory Model of Palliative Care.
This module focuses on supporting people to live well until they die.

Delivered by:

Laura, Director of Clinical Services

Louise, Specialist Breathlessness Physiotherapist and Health Coach

Part 2: Caring for the Dying Patient, Family and Loved Ones. This module focuses on how to recognise, communicate and facilitate a dignified death.

Delivered by:

Jo, Lead Counsellor

Debbie, Lead Palliative Care Nurse
